Coalesse® Launches Exponents™ at NeoCon 2011
A comprehensive collection of conferencing products

San Francisco, CA -- Coalesse, the leader in live/work furnishings, is pleased to introduce the Exponents Conference Collection at NeoCon 2011.

Designed by Coalesse, the Exponents collection offers a comprehensive range of conferencing products, including credenzas and mobile technology displays. Its architectural design language is composed of simple vertical and horizontal planes that can feature a variety of materials to bridge to architecture or other furniture elements in an interior, while supporting the technology requirements of today's collaborative spaces.

Exponents offers a broad range of useful support elements for the conference room: credenzas, carts, lecterns, white boards, mobile technology displays, mobile storage, and supplemental bench options for overflow seating.

“The breadth of the line makes it an ideal platform for a wide range of conferencing applications, said Coalesse Creative Director Robert Arko. “The vertical and horizontal planes create compelling space division and storage elements that support collaborative space needs.”

Prices: Credenzas start at $2,050; Lecterns $2,650; Carts $2,750. The Exponents collection has Level 1 and SCS Indoor Air Quality certifications.
