Coalesse® Expands Federal Business Opportunities Through Updated GSA Contract

Coalesse adds 15 products to GSA portfolio of product lines

San Francisco, CA – Promoting choice in the modern workplace helps employees develop more meaningful personal connections to the office. As choice and flexibility become more important for today's workforce, employers are facing an increasing demand to offer enhanced options for workplace settings that accommodate diverse staff needs. To address this growing demand, Coalesse is offering improved selections for modern commercial workspaces, with 15 additional products incorporated into the General Services Administration (GSA)-approved portfolio.

The new products available for the modified contract are: Coalesse Bob, Davos Lounge and Benches, Diekman Tables, Exponents, Hosu Seating (shown below), Lagunitas Lounge Seating and Tables, Last Minute Stools, Lox Seating, Millbrae Lounge Seating and Tables, Montara650 Seating and Tables, Passerelle Lounge Seating and Tables, Switch Seating, SW_1 Seating and Tables, Together Bench Seating, Visalia Lounge Seating.

As a member of the GSA, Coalesse qualifies as a select partner for federal purchasing programs. The extensive application process involves a thorough examination of each company to determine if the partnership is appropriate. GSA supplies federal purchasers with cost-effective, high quality products and services from commercial vendors and offers an array of workspace services. GSA's strategic integration of infrastructure, technology and employee solutions to accommodate diverse modern workplaces complements Coalesse and its capacity to create custom solutions for a range of organizations.

The addition of fresh product lines for the GSA portfolio enables Coalesse to offer a wider selection of research-backed design choices for governmental workplaces and expand federal business prospects. As an innovator in the workplace design industry, Coalesse will continue to bring new life to work through bolstered offerings and federal government collaborations with GSA.
